

6 Nights Incentive Programme Argentina

Ovation
Argentina

“The land of Silver”, Argentina, a destination treasures. Argentina is the world’s eighth largest nation, because of its immense size, it offers a huge variety of natural landscapes and a dynamic cultural heritage to match, ideal for incentives.

Day 1

Argentina

Day 1

- Arrival and transfer from Buenos Aires International Airport to the hotel

- Evening – It takes two

One of the city's most exclusive tango houses is the location for your introduction to Argentina's revered dance. After a delicious Argentine dinner and fine wines, sit back and enjoy the grace and glamour of this musical genre.

Day 2

Argentina

Day 2

○ Morning – Welcome to Buenos Aires

Time to discover the history of this vibrant city where you'll be surprised how much it resembles some European capitals. Soak up the colonial sights and beguiling sounds of San Telmo's cobblestoned streets, stroll through colourful Caminito and sip the traditional gaucho drink mate in the fashionable neighbourhood of Recoleta.

○ Afternoon – Navigate the Parana Delta

Enjoy a leisurely cruise through the Delta of the River Parana, the world's thirteenth largest river. Cruise past colonial mansions and houses on stilts, through the subtropical wonderland and come ashore at Tigres to visit the popular craft and fruit market of "Puerto de Frutos".

○ Evening – El Zanjón

Housed in a building with archaeological findings, El Zanjón's elegant rooms and mysterious tunnels combine to provide a fascinating peek into the history of Buenos Aires and a wonderful setting for dinner.

Day 3

Argentina

Day 3

○ El Calafate, Glaciers National Park

Depart Buenos Aires for El Calafate, home to one of the world's most outstanding natural jewels; Perito Moreno. More than 30,000 years old, this UNESCO world heritage site is one of the world's few advancing glaciers.

Follow the paths that lead you to its magnificent face and soak up the amazing views. Put on your "crampons" and enjoy an unforgettable walk on the ice. All the while the constant sound of ice breaking echoes all round!

The day ends in a nearby traditional restaurant where you'll indulge in some local delicacies including Patagonian lamb spit roasted next to an open wood fire.

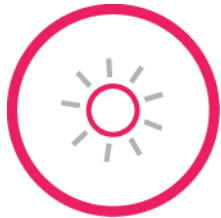

Day 4

Argentina

Day 4

○ Ice Rivers

Your ice adventure continues with a full day excursion through the 'Ice Rivers". Marvel at the magnificent colours of the Glaciers Upsala and Onelli during the navigation to the northern channel of Lake Argentino. For dinner, take our suggestion and visit one of the many excellent gourmet restaurants; La Posta, Parrilla La Tablita, Casimiro Bigua or Pascasio.

Day 5

Argentina

Day 5

○ The end of the world

Morning transfer by air to Ushuaia.

○ Afternoon

Discover the beauty and mystery of the Beagle Channel, the historic route sailed by settlers and explorers centuries ago. From the local pier board your twin hulled catamaran and head off along the Beagle Channel enjoying panoramic views of the city and the channel and its surrounding mountain ranges Montes Olivia and Cinco Hermanos.

While sailing the Bay of Ushuaia see the southernmost city in the world, Mount Olivia, Estancias (ranches) Figue and Tunel, then sail past the historical Les Eclaireurs lighthouse. Keep watch for sea elephants, sea lions and several varieties of bird species.

○ Evening

Enjoy a selection of regional seafood, the delicious taste of which is matched by breath taking views of snowcapped mountains.

Day 6

Argentina

Day 6

○ Tierra del Fuego

Today is yours to explore this pristine national park, roam among its peat bogs, hidden lakes, wild cherry forests and rich flora and fauna. Ride on the Austral Fueguino train 'the train to the end of the world', crossing the Pipo River with stops for stunning photo opportunities of Lago Roca, Lapataia Bay as well as the majestic peaks of Cerro Nevado and La Cadena Sampaio.

○ Evening

In the midst of this natural beauty stands the rustic setting for tonight's fueguese lamb dinner; Patagonia Mia. It's your final evening in Argentina and a perfect opportunity to contemplate the new places you have visited; from the mythical city of Ushuaia in Tierra del Fuego to the vibrant melting pot of Buenos Aires.

Av. Córdoba, 883
C1054AAH, Buenos Aires, Argentina

Ovationdmc.com/country/argentina-2

Phone: +54.11.5252.9801

Fax: +54.11.4813.0073