Capital of Greece, Athens is one of Europe's most enchanting meeting destinations with a plethora of opportunities both on land and at sea. A magical contrast of vibrant modern life and ancient civilisation, its wealth of archaeological sites and museums offers oases of peace and tranquility, vying with modern concert halls, theatres and nightclubs to entertain and enlighten visitors.

Day 1

Athens

○ Arrival

After a warm welcome at Athens International Airport, delegates are transferred to the hotel of choice. Welcome coffee reception on its stunning rooftop terrace with amazing views provides a scenic introduction to the city. Business meeting commences with working lunch to follow in one of the hotel's elegant conference suites.

○ Evening - Villa Nassioudjik

A short transfer from the city of Athens leads guests to a hillside, a plain stonewall, an old car and a wooden gate. What lies behind? The Byzantine Estate. A stone built house filled with Greek treasures; handmade kelims, antique furniture, Byzantine ceramics and carpets. Roam its Estate halls, where different musical ensembles entertain, all combining to provide a wonderfully atmospheric setting for cocktails and dinner.

Day 2

Athens

Day 2

○ Morning - Discover Athens

This morning is yours to explore the city's must see sites; Temple of Olympian Zeus & Hadrian's Arch, Plaka & Anafiotika, Roman Forum & Tower of the Winds, Ancient Agora, Kerameikos and Ancient Theater of Dionysos. Lunch in Dionysos restaurant, in the shadow of the Acropolis.

○ Afternoon

No visit to Athens could be complete without a visit to its supreme symbol, the outcropping of rock called the Acropolis, the sacred Parthenon Temple and the New Acropolis Museum; a crowning achievement of modern Greek culture.

○ Evening - Dine by the sea

Your time in Athens is drawing to a close but a special treat awaits. As dinner service concludes in a magical waterside venue, a troupe of Greek dancers perform the famous Zorbas dance and introduce guests to the art of Greek dancing by inviting them on the dance floor. Later the music takes on a more international flavour and the evening concludes with a spectacular firework display from the sea.
