2 Nights Meeting Programme

Budva

Ovation
Strategic Partner

One of the oldest cities on the Adriatic coast with city walls rising straight out of the sea, Budva is today the metropolis of Montenegrin tourism and a most enchanting setting for meetings and events. Old town ramparts, preserved Roman streets and historic remains of Illyrian and Greek civilisation sit picturesquely alongside exclusive hotels, enticing galleries and scenic beaches.

Day 2

○ Morning - Meeting

Business meeting commences in one of the hotel's conference rooms with refreshment break and buffet lunch to follow.

○ Afternoon - Teambuilding

Challenge your teambuilding skills with a sailing regatta in the Boka Bay. This magnificent bay is naturally divided into four bays with small towns strung like pearls along its coastline. After the award ceremony in Kotor Port its time to discover this UNESCO protected Old Town in a unique way.

Join the local Women's Association and help them prepare local specialties, then collect donations for a local children's orphanage by offering the products to the local people in the quaint narrow streets of the Old Town.

○ Evening - Old Fisherman's Village

This evening's dinner in an authentically decorated restaurant on the shore of the old fisherman's village Pržno will leave you with the most special memories of your time in Montenegro. Just steps from the sea, with views to the walls of the Old Town from one side and a beautiful park to the other, the dining experience will be highlighted with a traditional band playing the typical music of the region.
