Queenstown, New Zealand, sits on the shores of the South Island's Lake Wakatipu, set against the dramatic Southern Alps. Renowned for adventure sports, it's also a base for exploring the region's vineyards and historic mining towns. There's bungee jumping off Kawarau Gorge Suspension Bridge and jet-boating on the Shotover and Dart rivers. In winter, there's skiing on the slopes of The Remarkables and Coronet Peak.

Day 1

Queenstown

Day 1

○ Arrival Auckland City

On arrival at the Queenstown Airport guests are greeted and transferred to their luncheon venue by Jet boat.

○ Afternoon

Depart on a wine tour that takes you off the beaten track into the heart of Central Otago, a wine region famous for its outstanding cool-climate wines, boutique vineyards, dramatic scenery and fascinating pioneering history – the perfect wine tour destination.

○ Evening

Tonight taste and discover an authentic piece of Rural New Zealand. You are greeted with a drench gun cocktail to start the night. Watch working dogs round up the sheep. Enjoy Human Sheep Dog Trials - get the chance at rounding the sheep up yourself. Introducing a day in the life of a sheep farmer!

Day 2

Queenstown

Day 2

○ Morning

Today on your way to dog sledding, enjoy the magnificent views over the range, known as the Crown Range Road, it is the highest main road in New Zealand. It reaches an altitude of 1121 metres, which does bring challenges. On arrival guests start with an introduction to the world of sled dogs, the equipment and of course the dogs themselves. Learn how to set up your own team and interact with the dogs as they prepare to take you on an unforgettable ride guided by one of our experienced mushers.

○ Afternoon

Situated on the spectacular Crown Range Road, the Cardrona Hotel is one of New Zealand's oldest and most iconic hotels. Its rustic charm, stunning mountain setting and rich history make it a must see while in Central Otago. Said to be the most photographed pub in New Zealand, behind the historic facade lies a stunning beer garden suitable for an afternoon tipple. Enjoy a Helicopter scenic flight back to Queenstown.

○ Evening

Rata, an award winning restaurant is owned and operated by internationally recognized Michelin starred chef Josh Emmett and highly regarded local restaurateur Fleur Caulton. Rata takes inspiration from the southern landscape and everything that epitomises New Zealand.

Day 3

Queenstown

Day 3

○ Morning

Deep within Fiordland National Park lies Milford Sound, New Zealand's most stunning natural attraction. With its magical combination of mountain peaks, ink-dark waters and superb dramatic forest-clad cliffs, it must be seen to be believed. Milford Sound is a fiord in the southwest of New Zealand's South Island. It's known for towering Mitre Peak, plus rainforests and waterfalls like Stirling and Bowen falls, which plummet down its sheer sides. The fiord is home to fur seal colonies, penguins and dolphins.

○ Afternoon

Once you've arrived at Milford Sound, the best way to see the fiord in all its glory is by boarding a cruise and getting out on the water. Milford Sound cruises must be experienced to be believed. The stunning sheer cliffs surrounding you, the inky blackness of the water and the frosty alpine peaks looming over it all combine to create a stunning tableau.

○ Evening

At leisure.

Day 4

Queenstown

Day 4

○ Morning

Begin the day with a mouth-watering breakfast in a private venue surrounded by Queenstown's most stunning views. Explore the mythical legends of the Wakatipu and immerse yourself in Maori culture. From the fearsome haka to the stunning poi display, this unique and mesmerising live show is performed by Queenstown's leading Kiwi Haka Group.

○ Afternoon

Today enjoy one of the many activities Queenstown has to offer. World-renowned for its adventure, Queenstown is home to a huge choice of adrenaline activities including jet boating, bungy jumping, white water rafting and skydiving – all guaranteed to get your blood pumping! In the cooler months Queenstown transforms into a world class winter resort, with four ski areas and a range of activities, bars, restaurants and relaxation. You can combine a round of golf at one of Queenstown's gorgeous clubs or a tour of some of the wineries to discover just why Central Otago Pinot Noir is famous on the world stage. If you're looking for a slightly slower pace there's plenty of hiking and biking trails to explore, guided tours, boat cruises, scenic flights, spa treatments and wellness options. Make a day of exploring.

○ Evening

Enjoy your final night in Queenstown on the balcony and later in the private parlour of an iconic building on the shores of Lake Wakatipu. Offering a five course degustation dinner paired with wines picked for the occasion – and presented by the winery themselves in an entertaining and informative fashion.
