○ Afternoon – Discover the oldest quarter of Barcelona

During the tour you explore the Gothic neighborhood which dates back to the Medieval time. Its small streets remained a labyrinthine and lead to magnificent squares. Most of the quarter is closed to regular traffic and offers you countless small bars, restaurants, shops, cultural as well as historical sights. Optionally you can visit museums such as the famous Picasso Museum. The renown painter moved to Barcelona in 1894 at the age of 14 and spent many years there. Prior to the tour, you enjoy your lunch at El Nacional, an impressive multi space restaurant on the Passeig de Gràcia.

○ Evening- Relaxing end of your first day

In the evening you have dinner at the Restaurant Maritim, located in the Club Maritime in Barcelona's old harbor. From its terrace you have stunning views over the seaside as well as the old yacht harbor.

Day 2

Barcelona

Day 2

○ Morning- Enjoy your free time

During the morning you have some free time to explore the capital of Catalonia. If desired, Ovation can provide you ideas and recommendations where to go and what to see.

○ Afternoon- Dive into the world of the exceptional architect Antonio Gaudi

On the second day in Barcelona you discover Gaudi's most representative pieces of art such as the famous Casa Batlló on the Passeig de Gracia or the Sagrada Familia Church which is an absolute must see as it is a characteristic symbol of the city. Moreover, the Park Guell, the unique world heritage park as well as the Exiample district are impressive examples of Gaudi's art. During the tour you enjoy lunch in a local restaurant. Not interested in exploring bits of Gaudi's work during your stay? No problem- Ovation offers you countless other activities that are tailored to your wishes and preferences!

○ Evening- Experience the breathtaking views over Barcelona

Dinner is held at the Restaurant Can Travi Nou that is located in the hilly north of Barcelona and enables breathtaking views over the city. The history of the restaurant dates back to the beginning of the 17th century. After it functioned as a farm for many years, the owners transformed it into a country house in the beginning of the twenties. They refurbished it whilst keeping its original structure. Nowadays you can enjoy the authentic warm and charm of a seventeenth century farmhouse with all the modern day comforts.
