Czech Republic

Ovation
Czech Republic

Czech Republic was founded on the grouping of four ancient cities, each of them not only unique, but also providing visitors with a special charm and experience. Take a trip through time with us!

Day 1

Czech Republic

Day 1

Arrival and transfer from Prague Airport to the hotel of choice where guests discover the first of a series of in-room postcards outlining the daily detail of their programme.

○ Afternoon - Old Town

After lunch at the hotel, join a discovery walk of the Old Town led by a local host who will provide hints and tips to help you orientate yourself in the labyrinth of lanes. Meet local artist and taste traditional „Trdelník“. Last stop will be on an open-air terrace for a refreshing cocktail and enchanting views over the red roofs and towers of the area.

○ Evening – Prague Cabaret

First evening in Prague will start with a touch of culture from the perspective of Cirque Nouveau, dance and acrobatics with comedy and musical background. Playful and breath-taking programme in one of Prague Private Theatres.

Day 2

Czech Republic

Day 2

Morning – Meeting

- After breakfast business meeting commences in one of the hotel's elegant conference suites with lunch to follow.

Afternoon Hipster tour

- Let's see Prague from a different perspective - our city is not only about history, but also about the mix of cultures, dynamic and urban style with fresh air. The tour will take you to discover street food market places, collection of industrial arts with a stop in one of the hipster cool coffee shops !

Evening – Beer Break

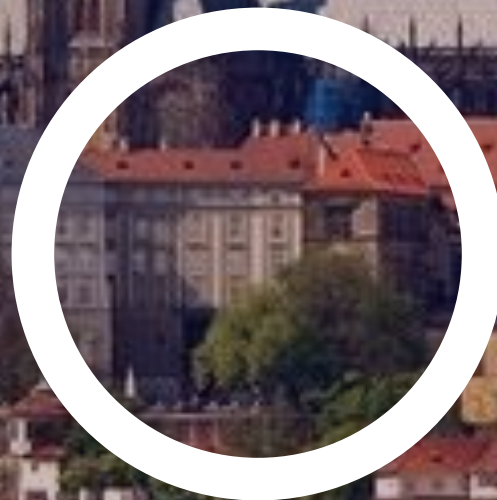

- World famous for its beer, no visit to Prague would be complete without sampling some of the local brew. Gather in a typical Czech pub for a relaxed evening of dulcimer music, local dance and traditional food. Each guest receives a beer mug as a memento.

Day 3

Czech Republic

Day 3

○ Morning - Hradcany

This morning activities will start a little bit later, shut eye may have been short last night. Aperitives are served on board a vintage tram which takes the Castle route incl. a visit of Strahov Library and lunch is served BBQ style in a setting overlooking the spires and fairytale architecture of the stunning cityscape below.

○ Afternoon - Prague Castle

Time to explore the courtyards and palace wings of this medieval complex. Forget about traditional monologues from guides. To discover Prague Castle, listen to the locals who are happy to share their tales of the city's most significant historic episodes.

○ Evening - Prague by Night

Dress up for a special evening in Prague's most prestigious concert hall. Enjoy drinks and canapés in a private suite at the hotel before departing for an exceptional performance by the Czech National Philharmonic Orchestra in the neo classical setting of Rudolfinum. Tomorrow is your last day so don't forget to read what tonight's postcard has in store.
