○ Afternoon – Discover the heart of Madrid

The first day of your trip starts with a fun team activity in the Austrian district, the historical center of Madrid . Simultaneously, you get to know some of the most important monuments in town as well as be challenged regarding the ability to work in a team. Moreover, you have to identify a series of historical characters and pass tests while making your way around the historical city of Madrid. Along the way you discover sights such as the Plaza Major, Puerta del Sol, Puerta de Alcala etc. During the tour you enjoy lunch at Asador de Aranda which is a traditional Spanish restaurant, located in the city center.

○ Evening- Dinner at Casa Lucio

Your first day in the Spanish capital ends with a dinner in one of the most traditional restaurants in Madrid- Casa Lucio. Over the last decades it has kept the authenticity of the traditional Spanish cuisine as well a great price-quality ratio. This converted it into an excellent address in Madrid- one where the famous of the Spanish and international society (such as ex- presidents or football players) go.

Day 2

Madrid

Day 2

○ Morning- Enjoy a free morning in the capital

Your second day begins with some relaxing as the morning is all yours! Are you seeking for more adventure during your stay? Ovation can provide you even more suggestions what to see and do.

○ Afternoon- Immersive royal group tour

How about discovering the Andalusian coast on board of an impressive Catamaran that can host up to 100 guests? Starting at the Puerto Banus harbor in Marbella, known for its luxury yachts, the boat takes you on a relaxing sail along the stunning coast where you might even spot dolphins! On board tapas and wine are served for lunch. If interested, you can also book water activities such as jet skis, parasailing or a dive for your trip.

○ Evening – Dinner at the Finca Amalur in Marbella

The Finca Amalur, before called Reserva de Noelia, is a beautiful space surrounded by nature that represents the perfect end of your relaxing day in Andalusia. The finca is known for its surrounding gardens that provide stunning views of the sea.

Day 4

Malaga

Day 4

○ Morning- Explore the city that makes everybody feel at home!

On your second day Malaga is explored- a city full of life and history. It is famous for being the capital of the Costa del Sol, Picasso as well as its cathedral, the Pasaje Chinitas (chinitas passageway) or the Calle Larios (Larios Street). The mild climate, its marvelous beaches, extraordinary gastronomy, the lavish popular culture of the streets, all contribute to a feeling of happiness, making anyone feel at home in Malaga.

The tour takes you through Malaga's history by following either a food or an orientation tour.

After the tour you taste more of the authentic Andalusian cuisine through a lunch at Bodega el Pimpi, located in the city center of Malaga.

○ Afternoon- Free time

After lunch at Bodega el Pimpi, with its name referring to a local who used to help the crews and passengers from the ships that arrived at the city's docks, you have some of hours of free time in the city center.

○ Evening- Dinner at Cortijo Cortes

The Cortijo Cortes has spectacular facilities in a beautiful Andalusian style. At Cortijo de Cortes many activities can be enjoyed such as horse shows, venenciador or bullfighting demonstrations. The Cortijo de Cortes, with its towers and courtyards, is located on the "Golden Mile" of the Costa del Sol, just five minutes from Puerto Banús, the port of Marbella.

Day 5

Granada

Day 5

Breakfast in your hotel
in Malaga

Transfer to Granada by bus (around 2 hours)

○ Morning- Panoramic City Tour through Granada

After arriving in Granada, your guide shows the sights as well as the hidden spots of the city including the historical city center, the Cathedral, Royal Chapel, the Alcaicería (Silk Market), Madraza (Koran School) and the High Court. Moreover, you get a deeper insight concerning the cultural heart of the city, the mix of styles and the importance of religions on urban construction, society and economy.

○ Afternoon- Visit the historical Alhambra

The highlight of the day is the visit of the Alhambra, which is located on a rocky hill, surrounded by woods, in the oldest quarters of the city. The Alhambra rises up like an impressive castle with reddish tones in its ramparts that prevent the outside world from seeing the delicate beauty inside. Originally designed as a military area, the Alhambra became the residence of royalty and of the court of Granada in the middle of the thirteenth century. Right before the visit, you get the chance to enjoy the beautiful view from the terrace on the Generalife Gardens at the Parador Granada. The restaurant is located inside of the Alhambra which makes it to one of the best spots for having an open air meal.

○ Evening- Dine around

For the evening, Ovation provides a list of local restaurants in Granada where you can go on a culinary adventure on your last evening in Spain.

Day 6

Malaga

Day 6
