Day 6

Laos

○ Morning - Luang Prabang

This morning transfer into the countryside surrounding Luang Prabang. The All Lao Elephant Camp is set among lush vegetation on the banks of the Nam Khan River. Here you will be introduced to the protected Asian Elephants and given some information about the efforts to protect them. This camp has a total of 15 elephants and each one is only ridden for a maximum of 3 hours per day, which means that the animal welfare here is much better than at many other camps in the area. Most of the elephants have been rescued from a life of logging.

Climb aboard for a scenic ride in the natural setting along the river. Enjoy the new perspective and the wonderful nature on this ride of approximately 1 hour.

In the late morning you will be transferred back to Luang Prabang.
