Steeped in 7,000 years of archaeological and historical treasure, set against a backdrop of honey coloured limestone cliffs and cerulean Mediterranean Sea, the islands of Malta provide some of the most irresistible locations for meetings and events. Few destinations can rival the rich contrast Malta offers between ancient monuments and modern hotels, medieval architecture and cutting-edge development, long-forgotten traditions and the latest trends.

Day 1

Malta

Day 1

○ Welcome to Malta

Arrival at Malta International Airport and transfer to the ancient city of Birgu. Board a chartered gullet to cruise the creeks of the Grand Harbour, soaking up the intriguing architecture and rich history of its magnificent fortifications while enjoying drinks on board. Disembark at the hotel of choice.

○ Evening – pre-dinner visit of Medieval Mdina & networking dinner in an 18th century palace

As the sun sets over the Medieval city of Mdina, its winding cobbled streets come to life with the warm glow of old lamps, illuminating breathtaking architecture and noble palaces steeped in history. The ancient bastions of "The Silent City" not only provide captivating views across the island but also create an ideal backdrop for pre-dinner drinks. The nearby 18th-century palace, Palazzo Parisio, awaits, offering a picturesque setting to relish a networking dinner within the enchanting gardens.

Day 2

Malta

Day 2

○ Morning – Meeting

Business meeting commences in one of the hotel's elegant conference rooms, followed by a working lunch

○ Afternoon Activity – Teambuilding – Battle at Sea

In the thrilling Pirates vs. Knights Battle at Sea, teams compete on wooden galleys, undertaking onboard tasks to earn points. Points are used to acquire water pistols, cannons, and equipment to set up targets around their boat. When the horn sounds, the objective is to "sink" the opponent's vessel by destroying all water-soluble targets. Get ready for an action-packed maritime showdown!

○ Evening – La Valette Hall – Night of the Knights

One of Malta's most imposing buildings, Sacra Infermeria, is home to this evening's dinner. The former hospital of the Order of St John enjoys breathtaking views of the spectacular Grand Harbour and Mediterranean Sea, a wonderful backdrop for a special farewell dinner.
