

3 Nights Incentive Programme

Nepal UNESCO Heritage Tour

In Nepal, a rich tapestry of cultural heritage is blended in the Kathmandu Valley. The Valley encompass the three ancient cities of Kathmandu, Patan and Bhaktapur that together houses seven UNESCO World Heritage shrines that are together listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site (Culture). Kathmandu is a living museum of Nepali civilization and culture and home to hundreds of exquisite monuments, sculptures, artistic temples and magnificent art – reminders of the golden era in Nepal's architecture.

Despite suffering damages from the April 2015 earthquake, Kathmandu retains its hustle and bustle and its people are still as jovial as ever.

Day 3

○ Morning

Head to Boudhanath Stupa, a center of Tibetan Buddhism. The recently renovated stupa is built on a massive three level mandala style platform and is one of the largest in the world. It is a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

○ Afternoon

The magnificent Pashupatinath Temple with its astonishing architectural beauty is situated on the banks of the sacred Bagmati River. This UNESCO World Heritage Site is regarded as the most sacred of all Lord Shiva temples and also a renowned Hindu cremation site.

○ Evening

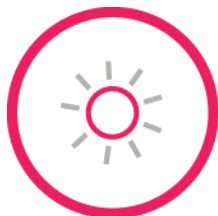

Drive to the medieval city of Bhaktapur or Bhadgaon that translates as the 'City of Devotees'. Still untouched by rapid urbanization, Bhaktapur retains its charm by its brick paved roads and red brick houses. Bhaktapur Durbar Square is a UNESCO World Heritage Site and has the best preserved extraordinary temples and palaces from the Malla Dynasty.
