

3 Nights Incentive Programme

Paracas & Nazca Lines

Ovation
Strategic Partner

Peru is a very far away hidden treasure that it is actually not so far. The country is Socially, Politically and Economically Stable, is one of the main gates of South America; in fact, Lima is the hub on the Pacific side of South America.

Meet people with a direct heritage of their Inca ancestors, an extremely polite, peaceful, helpful and smiling culture where you will be glad to be immersed in. Peru has more than 5,000 years of history where you will be eyewitness in every city or destination you will visit.

Peru will be a glad surprise, it always go beyond expectations.

Day 1

Paracas & Nazca Lines

Day 1

- Arrival

Arrival in Lima. Meet & Greet and transfer to the city of Paracas, located 160 miles from the airport.

Making it Happen

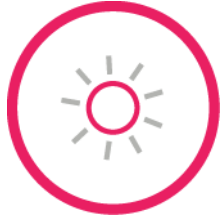

Day 2

Paracas & Nazca Lines

Day 2

- Morning: Visit the Ballestas Islands

In the morning we will visit The Ballestas islands (Known as the Peruvian Galapagos), a group of islands near the city of Pisco in Peru, are composed of rocky formations where there is an important marine fauna with guano birds, guanay, piquero and zarcillo mainly, stand out islands Ballestas Norte, Centro and Sur each with an estimated surface area of 0.12 km².

- Afternoon: Overflight to Nazca Lines

Before lunch, we will fly over the Nazca lines, ancient geoglyphs found in the Pampas de Jumana, in the Nazca desert, between the towns of Nazca and Palpa (Peru). They were traced by the Nazca culture and are composed of several hundred figures ranging from designs as simple as lines to complex zoomorphic, phytomorphic and geometric figures that appear traced on the earth's surface. Since 1994, the Unesco Committee has inscribed The Nazca and Pampas de Jumana lines and geoglyphs as World Heritage Sites.

- Evening: Deluxe dinner in tents in the middle of the desert

Day 3

Paracas & Nazca Lines

Day 3

- Morning: Return to the city of Lima
- Afternoon: Contemporary Lima City Tour

In the afternoon, we begin observing the Pacific Ocean in Miraflores district, The Love Park, as well as some houses that still remain in the traditional district. Bordering the boardwalk, through the current house of the famous Nobel writer Mario Vargas Llosa (sightseeing) and we will head to the artistic and bohemian district of Barranco, where we can see the famous “Bridge of Sighs” and the church La Ermita.

Visit the Pedro De Osma Museum, the former residence of the family De Osma, which has paintings on canvas, metal, wood, glass and leather. Dating from the sixteenth to nineteenth centuries, some of them belong to renowned painters and some to anonymous painters.

Also, we will have the opportunity to visit the famous Peruvian photographer Mario Testino’s Museum.

Mario Testino is one of the most acclaimed and popular fashion and portrait photographers. Alongside his 35-year practice as a photographer, Testino has also worked as a creative director, guest editor, museum founder, art collector/collaborator and entrepreneur. He also has an OBE (Order of the British Empire) for his contribution to the arts.

- Evening: Dinner at Club de la Union Restaurant

With an unbeatable location: in the Main Square of Lima, in front of the Cathedral and next to the Municipal Palace and Government Palace, this prestigious Club was founded in 1868, being part of it many important figures of Peruvian history. The building is considered a monument of the National Heritage. The reception rooms have a balcony with a wonderful view of the Cathedral and Plaza de Armas (Main Square) of Lima).

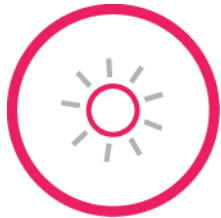

Day 4

Paracas & Nazca Lines

Day 4

- Airport

Transfer to Jorge Chávez International Airport to take your international flight.

Making it Happen

Thank you!

optimice
The Meetings & Incentives Specialists in Peru

Ovation
Strategic Partner

Calle Gonzáles Prada 355
Suite 207, Miraflores, Lima, Perú

Ovationdmc.com/country/peru

Phone: +51.1.723.11.10

Emergency: +51.952.320.625