

The Jewels of the Mediterranean

6 days / 5 nights

Ovation
Spain

Between the Pyrenees and the Mediterranean Sea, Barcelona is the vibrant and plural Catalan capital where Art, Architecture, and the Art of living dictates codes and shapes experiences.

This Mediterranean Jewelry offers so much more. The purely Mediterranean archipelago of the Balearics reveals many other faces, like Mallorca, with contrasting landscapes and cliffs, secret beaches and beautiful people.

Day 1

Barcelona

Ovation
Spain

Making it Happen

Day 1

Pick up at
Barcelona- El Prat Airport

Welcome Cocktail
at your hotel

Time to unpack
and to refresh

Afternoon - Barcelona 360° Experience

Discover Barcelona from three different angles: land, sea and air.

Feel the rhythm of the city and get to know Barcelona from a unique and distinctive perspective.

Ride a fun eBike along the main city highlights while learning about the fascinating history of Barcelona, Jump into Barcelona's cable car to admire a panoramic view from the air; and finally, relax on board of a classic schooner, offering striking views over Barcelona's skyline.

See with your own eyes why Barcelona is one of the best cities to live in!

Evening- Relaxing end of your first day

Relaxing evening at the beach with possibility to have dinner on the terrace with stunning views over the seaside.

Overnight at the hotel

Day 2

Barcelona

Ovation
Spain

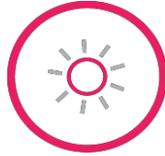

Making it Happen

Day 2

Breakfast at the hotel

Morning- Discover the Oldest quarter of Barcelona

During the tour you will explore the Gothic neighborhood which dates to the Medieval times. Its small streets remained a labyrinthine and lead to magnificent squares. Most of the quarter is closed to regular traffic and offers you countless small bars, restaurants, shops, cultural as well as historical sights. You can also decide to visit museums such as the famous Picasso Museum. The renown painter moved to Barcelona in 1894 at the age of 14 and spent many years there.

Tapas Lunch

The Tour will end by a stop at the Boqueria market where you can enjoy a traditional “Montadito” with a drink before we head towards an unforgettable tapas lunch.

Afternoon Shopping

Free time for shopping in area full of local shops and brands before heading back to the Hotel

Catalan evening

Evening at a large Catalan farmhouse built in the nineteenth century on the ruins of the castle of Picalqués. After several restorations, this historic venue still conserves its elegance and the family weapon, situated above the entrance. It is now managed by a well-known caterer in town which offers a delicious, local, and elegant food experience.

Overnight at the hotel

Day 3

Barcelona & Departure to Mallorca

Ovation
Spain

Making it Happen

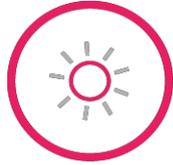

Day 3

Breakfast at the hotel

Time to pack for next destination

Morning- Dive into the world of the exceptional architecture of Antonio Gaudi

On the third day in Barcelona you will discover Gaudi's most representative pieces of art, such as the famous Casa Battló on the Passeig de Gracia or the Sagrada Familia Temple which is an absolute must see symbol in the city. Park Guell, the unique world heritage park as well as the Eixample district are impressive examples of Gaudi's art that you can also choose to discover.

Paella cooking class

From the hand of our chefs, guests will get to know all steps to prepare a delicious paella. The group will be divided into several teams of 10-15 people and will start competing with each other using the same ingredients to elaborate the best Paella. After the preparation and the "famous" 20minutes, their Paella will be served, and the best team will be awarded.

We Will then head towards the airport and continue our trip to Mallorca

Departure to Mallorca Island

Relaxing evening on the island

After an intensive and travelling day, the evening will take place at the hotel on their fantastic outdoor space with typical gastronomy served on buffets.

Overnight at the hotel

Day 4

Mallorca

Ovation
Spain

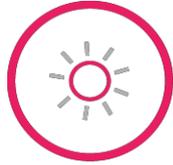

Making it Happen

Day 4

Breakfast at the hotel

Morning- Discovering the Island from the sea

Today, let's sail on the turquoise blue Mediterranean sea and discover the picturesque and hidden coves of Mallorca aboard a large and comfortable catamaran, with a spacious deck. Enjoy your day sailing across the breath-taking coastline of Mallorca, snorkelling and swimming.

Fish and seafood lunch at the harbour

Afternoon – Palma Challenge

Palma has a perfect size to do a walking activity. Many of the historical sights are located on tiny, pedestrianized streets, making it a very pleasurable way to explore the city. With the help of a map, teams will have to follow the track, going through check points to answer questions, do creative or sportive activities to collect the maximum points in order to reach the 1st award.

Barbecue evening at Illetas Beach

Evening at one of the beach clubs, offering exclusive terraces, an indoor lounge and a glazed party room that make up an ideal space to celebrate your event...a real privilege to enjoy an evening in front of the beach at Palma Bay.

Overnight at the hotel

Day 5

Mallorca

Ovation

Spain

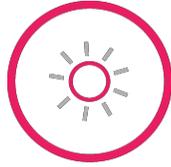

Making it Happen

Day 5

Breakfast at the hotel

Fun Jeep Rally - discovering the Island

Today it is the day to discover the island by yourselves. After a briefing, all groups receive a roadbook and a questionnaire about land and culture ... and jump to their respective Jeep! After some time on the road, the first stop will be at the wonderful village of Valldemossa, where we find important elements of Mallorca's heritage.

Second stop at Soller, one of the most unique towns of the island.

Lunch in a typical house with wonderful views over the bay

Afternoon at Soller

Guests will have free time to visit this picturesque village: its square, the market, the popular shopping street "La Luna", the famous tramway taking them to the harbour and all secrets corners. Transfer back to the hotel by jeep.

Dinner in an old quarry

Evening organized in a fantastic old sandstone quarry now converted into one of the most emblematic restaurant of the island offering traditional Majorcan recipes.

Overnight at the hotel

Day 6

Mallorca

Ovation
Spain

Making it Happen

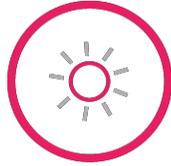

Day 6

Breakfast at the hotel

Time to pack...

Discover the secrets of the traditional Majorcan cuisine

Mallorca is much more than a beautiful beach, beautiful pictures ... it's also about traditions. Let's approach it stimulating the senses through a typical workshop:

- Elaboration of a typical almond ice cream: Helado de Turrón.
- The process of the production of the typical Mallorquin dessert of the island: La Ensaimada
- How to do your own typical herb liqueur of the island: Licor de hierbas

Don't forget your recipes to make those delicious dishes back home.

Buffet lunch at the hotel

Time to say: "Hasta Pronto España"

After lunch, we will head to the airport and hoping to welcoming you again in Spain very soon! So you'll get to say "hasta pronto España"

Departure

Making it Happen

OVATION SPAIN DMC

Calle Tuset 32, 5º, 08006 Barcelona Spain
Phone: +34 93 445 97 20

Calle Santa Engracia 151, Planta 1-1ª, 28003 Madrid, Spain
Phone: +34 91 142 05 80

Contact us: spain@ovationdmc.com

Visit our website:

Ovation Spain & Portugal, offices in Barcelona – Madrid – Lisbon