

5 Nights Incentive Programme Spain

Ovation
Spain

There are numerous reasons why Spain is Europe`s number one travel destination, the climate and the guarantee of sun rank high on the list.

Constantly updating infrastructure, majestic culture, rich gastronomy, security and renowned hospitality, Spain become an incomparable destination for your company event or incentive.

Day 1

Spain

Day 1

After being met by traditionally-attired hostesses at Madrid-Barajas International Airport, guests are whisked away to their hotel to unpack and enjoy a welcome drink.

○ Afternoon - Madrid of the Habsburg

Dive into Madrid's historic quarter, known as 'Madrid of the Habsburgs,' with a personal tour guide introducing your guests to the rich history of the surrounding buildings and monuments. Enjoy lunch at Café de Oriente, one of Madrid's most famous restaurants, overlooking Plaza Oriente, the Royal Palace and its gardens. Your guests' afternoon ends with free time – we suggest dipping into the city's impressive art scene:

- The Reina Sofia Museum of Modern Art houses Picasso's 'La Guernica' and many of Dali's Works.
- Private tours can be arranged in the Thyssen-Bornemisza Museum.
- The baroque architecture and luxurious interiors of the Royal Palace are also worth a visit.

○ Evening - San Miguel Market - The Culinary Temple

Guests' next encounter with Spain's famed gastronomy is at the one-of-a-kind San Miguel market. Enjoy a private dinner comprising delicious Spanish tapas and wine, accompanied by the passionate reverberations of an acoustic flamenco guitar.

Day 2

Spain

Day 2

○ Morning - Real Madrid Football Club

The Spanish Royal Family is not the only royalty who call Madrid home - Real Madrid is regarded as football royalty across the world! An exclusive tour of the Bernabeu Stadium includes visits to the overflowing trophy room, top-class dressing rooms, the legendary tunnel, team benches and the famed presidential terrace. Want to see “Los Blancos” in action? Ovation Spain can organise match tickets.

○ Afternoon - Modern Madrid

Arriving in Madrid’s young and hip district of Chueca, lunch is taken in any one of the area’s many contemporary restaurants. Enjoy free time to discover small boutiques, chic stores, hip cafés and unique bars. If desired, Ovation Spain can design a unique and personalised leisure option such as;

- Personal Shopping
- Wine Tasting
- Flamenco course
- Paella Cooking activity

○ Evening - History & Elegance

Regroup for an exclusive tour of the prestigious and intimate Prado museum, where the walls are clad with collections of Velazquez, Goya and Dali. Pre-dinner appetisers are served in the Prado but only to tease the taste buds ahead an elegant gala dinner overlooking the city at the nearby Grand Casino Madrid (no gambling happens here!).

Day 3

Spain

Day 3

After breakfast, guests board the high-speed AVE train to enjoy a relaxing 2.5 hour trip south towards Malaga in a private carriage.

○ Afternoon - Marbella - Sun, Sea, Sand & Sights

Lunch by the water is followed by some free time to explore the beautiful beaches of Marbella. Stroll through the harbour and absorb the unique spirit that makes this city so fascinating.

Regroup for an historic walking tour to understand how the history of Marbella and Andalucía was influenced by the Iberians, Carthaginians, Romans, Moors and Christians.

○ Evening - Olé – El Cortijo de Cortes

- Experience authentic hospitality at one of Andalusia's most prestigious farmhouses - El Cortijo de Cortes. Live Flamenco music accompanied by dancers and an entertaining horse show will set the pulses racing. A delicious BBQ is accompanied by the best Spanish wines.

Day 4

Spain

Day 4

○ All Day - Rally to Ronda

A hearty breakfast overlooking the waterfront sets guests up for a unique road trip to Ronda, the magical cliff-top city one hour from Marbella. The only way to experience the impressive views and breath-taking landscapes en route is by partaking in an 'old timer' rally in the latest sports cars on the market. Arriving at Ronda, guests will be treated to a typically Andalusian lunch.

After spending the afternoon mooching around Ronda's iconic bridges and buildings, it will become very obvious why this town inspired Ernest Hemingway, Reiner Maria Rilke and many other famous writers and poets to spend long periods here. For more hi speed action, guests then visit the private Ascari Race Resort for a gripping driving experience before heading back to Marbella.

○ Evening - Beach Club

Arriving in Marbella, your guests will have time to freshen up before an evening of entertainment at a private beach club in the city's exclusive Puerto Banús waterfront area. Stunning sea views act as the perfect backdrop for a dinner accompanied by live music and cocktails

Day 5

Spain

Day 5

○ All Day - Connecting Continents – Morocco

A European breakfast is served on board an Africa-bound private yacht. As the captain sets sail for the Marina Smir port in Morocco, guests can relax on deck and enjoy the blue Mediterranean waters before the green hinterlands and mountains of the African coastline appear. Today's itinerary is designed to deliver an authentic Arabic experience – stroll around the souk (traditional Arabic market), see the royal summer residence of the King and visit Tangier to encounter the town's Medinas (old quarter).

After a Moroccan lunch, guests have free time to take in the sounds, aromas, tastes and emotions of Tangier before heading back to Marbella.

○ Evening - Arabic Night at Puro Beach

Arriving in Marbella, guests finish off the day with a relaxing dinner at the famous Puro Beach, a destination inspired by Arabic culture and design.

Day 6

Spain

Day 6

○ Morning - Get Active

Marbella's abundance of leisure options offers endless possibilities: golf resorts, arts and culture, boating and yachting, water sports, boutiques and restaurants. Ovation Spain is on hand to design a personalised programme for guests. How about these options?

- An 18-hole golf session
- Discover Malaga, home of Pablo Picasso
- Horse riding excursion
- Water-skiing or scuba diving

○ Afternoon - Adios España

A farewell lunch brimming with Mediterranean cuisine at the waterfront is the perfect opportunity to surprise participants with a personalised and/or branded photo book from the trip.

Transfers to airport / train station.
