

7 Nights Incentive Program

Havana-Varadero

Ovation
Cuba

A trip to Cuba today is a combination of sensations found in a Caribbean island that is well known by the warmth and generosity of its people. History, tradition and culture are the main axes that define this large island of 1,200 Km from East to West. The natural beauty of its forests and beaches makes it a wonderful complement that converts Cuba in a Caribbean jewel that remains, fortunately still hidden from massive tourism, and many of us rely on the nostalgia as the ultimate journey to this island

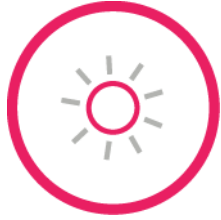

Day 1

Havana-Varadero

Day 1

○ Arrival, to José Martí Intl Airport in Havana

Upon going through the immigration and custom procedures, the feeling of the Caribbean atmosphere will be touching your skin immediately. Our professional Cuban guides will meet & greet at the airport and will take you to the hotel giving you the first Cuban flavor in the form of traditional salsa and son music, making you feel ready for the Cuban journey

○ Evening

First night in Havana and the Cuban mode is already on. Pure Summer clothing ready for the cocktail reception to taste the signature Cuban drink: The Mojito. A refreshing blender of mint, lime, ice and rum that will refresh the soirée, follow by a finger food reception with live salsa music.

Day 2

Havana

Day 2

○ Morning & Afternoon

After an energizing breakfast at the hotel, we will take the iconic Cuban classic cars to tour around Havana in order to have the first impact of such a distinct city. We will stop at Revolution Square, Hemmingway Marina, El Morro and Havana vieja and pass by other relevant areas of the city. We will stop for lunch at hotel Nacional, a historical place full of memorabilia from the past. After lunch we will have time to walk through the small streets in the old town stopping at the Bodeguita del Medio famous bar where many celebrities have put their footprint and another Mojito will be served to us.

○ Evening

It is time for the Tropicana show. A very unique musical that reflects the history of Cuban music through the years. A two hour show, with dinner included in an open-air theater. With time at the end of the show for salsa dancing. A night to remember.

Day 3

Valley of Viñales

Day 3

○ Travel to the West part of the island, “Viñales Valley” & Pinar del Rio

We will embark today for the excursion to the Viñales Valley, a pure natural area, two hours away West from Havana. We will visit the “Prehistorical Mural” and pass by a collection of authentic natural Cuban landscapes. We will stop for lunch at a Tobacco farm in Pinar del Rio, where we will have an authentic farmer’s meal including Cuban coffee and a great local cigar.

○ Evening

After a couple of hours of relax from the great tour, we will get ready for a surprise evening. Our dinner is today at “Alex’s,” former Fidel Castro’s chef. He will offer us tonight an exquisite menu surrounded with memorabilia from the times he served Fidel. And of course, Cuban music will be ready to be danced.

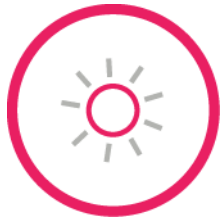

Day 4

Havana Experiences

Day 4

○ Day for cultural experiences in Havana

We are dedicating the day to do very unique type of visits in Havana including the artist “Milton” who paints with tobacco leaves. He has acquired great reputation in its art and he will introduce this technique to us and will show all the celebrities he has painted. We will also be visiting cocktail’s experts “Rafa & Lisbeth” where they will be giving us a master class in cocktails including the famous mojitos. Afterwards, we will be visiting, Kamil a one of a kind painter of Cuban art and during the visit, we will also be painting in his studio.

After a short break in the hotel to recuperate some energies, we will be heading to National Theatre for a performance of the Carlos Acosta Dance group, very famous in his modern dance style.

Day 5 & 6

Varadero

Days 5 & 6

- Transfer from Havana Hotel to Varadero. It will take approximately two hours to reach this special beach destination.
- During these 2 days, we will have the privilege to relax and disconnect in one of the places where the beaches are just magnificent with pristine waters.
